PARENTAL CONSENT FOR PARTICIPATION IN MISSION ADVENTURE

Scout _____ Unit _____

Council/District _____Date in Camp _____

Program Description

The Mission Adventure program is a special "adventure" program conducted by the staff at Peaceful Valley Scout Ranch ("Ranch") for Scouts age 14 and up.

Possible activities conducted on the Ranch may include kayaking, rock climbing, hiking, mountain biking, and similar "adventure" activities. Participants may elect to go on an optional day excursion away from the Ranch. This trip may include some or all of these activities in Colorado Springs: Cave of the Winds lighted walking tour, Pikes Peak, Olympic Training Center, cycling or hiking at Garden of the Gods. The Ranch staff and/or unit leaders, using camp vehicles and/or unit leaders' personal vehicles, will provide transportation and supervision. Standard BSA safety procedures and camp policies will be followed during all activities, including the off-Ranch trip.

There is an additional fee for participation in Mission Adventure. This includes participation in the off-camp trip.

Permission to Participate

I understand that participation Mission Adventure Program offered through the Denver Area Council, B.S.A. involves a certain degree of risk that could result in injury or death. In consideration of the benefits to be derived and after carefully considering the risk involved, and in view of the fact that the Boy Scouts of America is an organization in which membership is voluntary, and having full confidence that precautions will be taken to ensure the safety and well-being of my child, I grant consent for my child's participation in Mission Adventure activities except as noted below.
