

Pack Committee Member Position Specifics Training c60

Learning Objectives:

- Explain how the Cub Scouting program is delivered and organized
- Identify the responsibilities of the committee positions
- Explain how a pack budget is created
- Relate the importance of a pack budget to the success of the pack.
- Explain the importance of annual planning
- List the steps required to plan a full year of fun activities and adventures
- Recognize the benefits of unit leadership enhancements
- Identify the types of additional training available to adult leaders
- Learn how to recruit and retain members
- Identify the types of recognition available to leaders