Dear Sean,

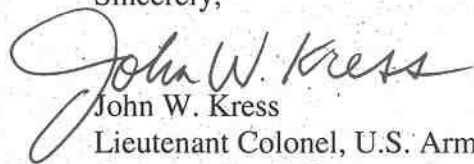

I am Lieutenant Colonel John W. Kress of the United States Army. Allow me to congratulate you on your recent promotion to Eagle Scout. It is a distinction pursued by many, yet achieved by only a select few. The Chief of Staff of the Army, General Peter J. Schoomaker, has awarded you a certificate of recognition in honor of your achievement.

Many honored leaders such as Gerald Ford, 38th President, Togo D. West, former Secretary of the Army, and H. Ross Perot, founder of Electronic Data Systems have obtained the great honor of being awarded the Eagle Scout rank just like you.

You have demonstrated outstanding duty, honor, and selfless-service in achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. These are qualities that will serve you well in the future. Within the Army, an Eagle Scout receives an automatic promotion of two pay grades. I urge you to continue to be the kind of person it took for you to earn the honor of wearing the rank of Eagle Scout.

Great job!!!

Sincerely,

John W. Kress
Lieutenant Colonel, U.S. Army
